

ITMA 2023

ITMA 2023 TEXTILE COLOURANTS AND CHEMICALS FORUM (9 JUNE 2023)

CALL FOR PAPERS

The fourth edition of the Textile Colourants and Chemicals Forum is expected to draw the participation from dyestuff, colour and chemical professionals from around the world.

The forum aims to offer practical and technical insights to professionals in this field. Topics relevant to ITMA 2023's theme Transforming the World of Textiles, such as minimising carbon footprint in chemical treatment, improving dyehouse output treatment, fibre fragmentation, and safe and sustainable chemistry will be interesting subjects for presentation at the forum.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Open to all ITMA 2023 exhibitors.

The topics will focus on the following:

- The chemical/colourant supplier's role and response to the current environmental issues.
Examples of current issues facing the industry and areas of growth are:
  - Safe and sustainable chemistry
  - Fibre fragmentations
  - Dyehouse output treatment
- New preparation, dyeing, printing and finishing innovative technologies and their impact on a more sustainable textile supply chain in response to current requirements from the European Union Green Plan.

Presenters should emphasise on innovations and providing solutions and perspectives on above-mentioned topics. Please upload your paper in pdf format with no more than 500 words and no larger than 10 MB in size. Kindly note that commercial presentations will be rejected.

You may click here to submit your paper. Please refer to the Submission Guide provided should you need more clarifications. The submission deadline has been extended to 31 January 2023.

You will be required to register for an account separately at the events submission platform. Only the nominated person in-charge of events from the collaborator module in the Exhibitor Centre, OR the main corresponding person, will have access to the events submission platform. Please note that it could take up to 3 working days to activate your account from the date of your registration.
